Alliant Purchasing and U.S. Renal Care, Inc. announced today a new agreement naming Alliant the Group Purchasing Organization (GPO) throughout the U.S. Renal Care, Inc. network of over 385 dialysis clinics. U.S. Renal Care, Inc. will access Alliant’s aggregate purchasing power, strategic collaborations, and dynamic supply chain partnerships. Alliant’s enhanced contract portfolio and offerings will compliment U.S. Renal Care, Inc.’s intentional efforts to lower costs and bring new efficiencies to operations.

Mark Slone, President, Alliant Purchasing stated, “Alliant is honored to support U.S. Renal Care, Inc. as they develop a best-in-class supply chain operation. Their mission is to ‘change the lives of people living with kidney disease and ultimately shape the future of kidney care in partnership with their physicians, patients, and communities’. That type of straightforward unwavering commitment to excellence inspires our Alliant team to join them on their journey. Under Janet Watson’s transformational supply chain leadership, I think the U.S. Renal Care and Alliant partnership will create exciting results.”

“We are dedicated to high quality patient care for all kidney care patients. As a supply chain, our job is to ensure U.S. Renal Care, Inc. can accomplish this in an affordable and reliable manner,” said Janet Watson, Senior Vice President – Supply Chain & Procurement. “We appreciate that Alliant is aligned with our dedication and commitment as they partner with us to achieve the best overall value for U.S. Renal Care, Inc.”
